Part 1
LESSON ONE - GOOD MANNERS

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) explained the most important objective of his mission in these words: -

"Indeed I have been sent only to perfect good manners."

In fact the whole religion is based on good manners; Islam in all its ramifications (i.e. worship, dealing, jurisprudence and other laws) is concentrated in good manners.

As we have explained in Book One, good manners is an essential part of Islam. This part includes those deeds that are liked in Islam and those that are disliked.

In the following lessons we shall show some of those deeds that are obligatory to every Muslim and those that are optional.

Part 2

LESSON TWO - OBLIGATORY ACTS

(4) To Do Good To Both Parents God has ordered:

"And God has ordered that you should not worship anyone but Him alone, and to do good to parents. If one of them attains old age before your eyes, or both, do not utter even "Fie"; nor must you be angry with them; and speak to them with utmost respect. Lower your wing of humility with kindness to them and say, 'My Lord! Have Mercy on them (My parents) as they nursed me in my childhood.'" (17:24)

(5) To Look After One's Blood Relations:

God has enjoined: "... .. and fear God, in Whose name you importune one another, and (be mindful) of kinship; Verily God is watchful over you." (4:1)

(6) To Help Each Other In Good Deeds:

God has ordered: "... .. and help one another in righteousness and piety, and help not one another in sin and aggression." (5:2)

(7) To Reconcile People: God has declared:

"So fear God and set aright matters between yourselves and obey God and His Apostle if you are believers." (8:2) "Indeed, the believers are but brethren, so make peace among the brethren and fear (the wrath of) God that you be blessed with mercy." (49:10)

(8) Truth: God has stated:

"... .. God certainly knows those who are truthful and He certainly knows those that are liars (29:3) God has ordered us to "be always with the truthful ones." (9:119)

Verily the patient ones will be paid their recompense without an account." (39:10)

(4) Lesbianism:

The ruling for this is like that of sodomy and it is one of those acts that have been severely condemned by God and His Prophets. A tribe "As-habur-Ras" was exterminated (by punishment from Allah) for this abnormality, just as the people of Sodom were exterminated because of Sodomy

(5) Drinking Liquor:God has declared:

"O you who believe! Verily, intoxicants and games of chance (dedications of) stones (i.e. idols) and (divination by) arrows, are only an abomination of Satan's handiwork, so stay away from it so that you may be successful." (5:90)

(24:30)

(25) Attending Dance and Cinema:

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has forbidden us to attend any place where evil is being performed and where what is forbidden takes place. In the cinema one is subjected to music and obscene words and deeds; and these are forbidden in Islam as has been explained in this book.

(26) Singing and Listening to Music:

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has said: "One who plays a 'musical instrument' will rise in the Day of Judgement with a dark face and will have a guitar of fire in his hands. Above him will be 70,000 angels of punishment each carrying a sickle and beating him on the head and face with it. Anyone who sings will rise blind, deaf and dumb. Likewise the fornicator. The same fate will befall those who play a pipe and the tambourine."

Part 8

(35) To Help the Oppressor:

God has declared: "... .. and help (one another) in righteousness and piety, and do not help (one another) in sin and aggression." (5:2) God has said: "And think not God to be heedless of what the unjust ones do. He only respiteth them to a day when the eyes shall be fixed open (staring up with terror)." (14:42)

(36) To Rule Against Islamic Laws:

Part 9
LESSON NINE - BAD HABITS

(1) Bad Manners:

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has stated:

"Bad manners spoil the (good) deeds of a person in the same way as vinegar spoils honey."

(2) Niggardliness:

God has declared: "And let not those who are niggardly in giving what God has granted them of His Grace reckon it is good for them; That which they have been niggardly of, shall shortly be clung to their necks on the Day of Resurrection." (13:179)

(3) Envy:

God has stated: "And do not covet that by which God has raised some of you above others; for men shall have of what they earn and women shall have of what they earn, and ask God of His Grace. Verily God is (very well) in the Know of all things." (4:32) God has said: "Or do they envy the people for what God has given them of His grace." (4:54) The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has said: "Envy devours goodness like firewood is consumed by fire."

(4) Cowardice:

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has said: "It does not become a believer to be niggardly or cowardly." Believing to fear God and leave off sins is the sign of a good man.

(5) Lack of Courage:

A person lacking in moral force and enterprise is amongst the bad ones, so is the one whose energies are directed towards evil ways. One must keep away from such ways.

(6) Treachery And Enmity:

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has said: "Anyone who has even a little tendency of cheating and vengeance in his heart will be resurrected by God with people of the Times of Ignorance" (i.e. the Non-believers before the advent of Islam).

(7) Vengeance:

The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has declared: "I swear in the name of Him who has my life in His hand there are three things that are most holy: one's wealth is never decreased by giving alms (so, do give alms), one never will regret who has forgiven him (for the sake of God) who has oppressed him (because Allah will elevate his status on the Day of Judgement); and whoever begins to beg, God opens the doors of poverty for him." God has stated: "If you do good openly or conceal it, or pardon an evil, then verily, God is Oft-Forgiving, Powerful." (4:149)

8. Complaining When In Distress:

This is a most undesirable trait and its opposite is Patience and Forebearance. God rewards patience.

Part 10
LESSON TEN - BAD HABITS

(9) Boasting:

On the day the Prophet captured Mecca he stood before the people and proclaimed: "O you People! God has removed from you the empty boast and pride of pedigree of the Times of Ignorance; Indeed you are all from Adam and Adam issued forth from dust. The Best of you is the one who most fears God."

(10) Love of Leadership, Honour and Wealth:

God has declared: "That abode in the hereafter, We assign it for those who intend not to exult themselves in the earth, nor (to make) mischief (therein); and the end is (best) for the pious ones. Whosoever desireth life of this world and its pomp, We shall pay them (the recompense for) their deeds therein, they shall suffer not any loss. These are they for whom there is nothing in the hereafter but (the Hell) fire, and vain shall be (all) that they wrought in it, and vain shall be what they were doing." (11:15-16)

(11) Greed:

It is a good sign to be "greedy" in doing good deeds, but to be greedy of food and in accumulating wealth is undesirable. The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has said: "Two greedy persons are never satiated: those greedy of acquiring knowledge and those greedy of accumulating wealth."

(12) Haste:

There is a proverb that goes: "Haste is Waste." The Holy Prophet (s.a.w.) has explained: "Haste is from Satan and patience from God."

(13) Laziness:

Laziness is a very bad habit. A lazy person always misses many a good thing and is always in trouble. God has declared: "And that there is naught for man but what he has striven for." (53:39)

(14) Blabbering:

God has stated: "He does not pronounce a word but unto him is a watcher ready (to record it)" (50:18)

(15) Vain Talks:

In the Qur'an it is stated by God in connection with the Day of Judgement that when the sinners will be asked: "What has brought you into Hell?" They will say we were not of those who offered the regular prayers (to God) and we used not to feed the poor and we used to talk vanities with vain talkers." (74:42-45)

(16) Self-Humiliation:

One who belittles himself is ridiculed and lacks courage. Imam Jaafar-as-Sadiq (a.s.) has explained, "Indeed, God has left to a believer all his dealings except to belittle himself for hasanah. It has been stated in the Qur'an, 'But for God is all honour and for His Apostle and for the believers, but the hypocrites know (it) not.'" (63:8)
