CARCANET

...small wars are operations undertaken under executive authority, wherein military force is combined with diplomatic pressure in the internal or external affairs of another state whose government is unstable, inadequate, or unsatisfactory for the preservation of life and of such interests as are determined by the foreign policy of our Nation.

United States Marine Corps, Small Wars Manual

“Flowers in their wounds,” muttered the airman, “that’s what she couldn’t get over, flowers in their wounds, flowers.”

Barbara Euphan Todd, Miss Ranskill Comes Home

This book is for Hannah, Belinda, Victoria and Ruth, with gratitude and love.

Acknowledgements

Some of these poems were first published in Bad Press; Blue Pig; Buffalo News; Counterpunch; Critical Quarterly; Desperate for Love; Dusie 6; Ecopoetics; Invisible Tight Institutional Out; Flanks Dub (verb); Glorious National Hi-Violence Response Dream; Lifecoach; Matter; Past Simple; Square One; Starting at Zero; The i.e. Reader; Tits and Zoland Poetry; also as a limited edition of twenty copies handmade for the First Pearl River Poetry Conference, Guangzhou, China, June 2000 and in comic-book form as a series of twenty-nine prints.

In the USA poems were first published in the books Pleasant Butter (Sand Project Press, Northampton, MA, and Paris, France, editors/publishers David Ball and George Tysh); Caller (Edge Books, Washington DC, editor/publisher Rod Smith), Let Baby Fall (Critical Documents, Providence, RI, editor/publisher Justin Katko) and Tottering State (O Books, Berkeley, CA, editor/publisher Leslie Scalapino). I thank everyone involved with those publications.

The first thirteen poems included here were omitted from Collected Poems (Carcenet, 2003). 'Call' (Act, Trigram Press, 1973) was missing because of the author's carelessness; 'Into the Wild Blue Yonder', 'Breeding the Arsenic-Proof Baby' (Tottering State, O Books, 2000) and the ten poems following (Pleasant Butter, Sand Project Press, 1972) because copies of the original publications could not be found at that time.

Thanks to Pierre Joris for recovering 'Intellectual Compost 6', written on the flyleaf of his copy of Collected Poems.

'With John Gian' is a collaboration written for Markers at the Peggy Guggenheim Collection, Venice Biennale, 2001.

'Listen Up' was written to infiltrate the 'Poets for the War' website and submitted under the name Ophelia Merkin. It was sufficiently successful for Ophelia to be invited to take over the site before Robert Creeley blew her cover.

'Data Death : Zerone' was recited by Rudy Giuliani. G.W. Bush plagiarised 'Shuck' in a video conference during the battle of Fallujah.

“43” he said, referring to the numbers they’d given the background noise tap pattern outside my head speak to me signaller of the word-commune i was not aware one lonely word outside could call itself 'snap'

Breeding the Arsenic-Proof Baby i see china as terribly peaceful folk sitting around saying “torch-singer roxy’s on the wire” writing poems like ‘24 ribs

pop out flies the spirit’ i like to listen late at night breathing in a tiny cloud of chinese skin as they all jump up and down whispering “china” they give it away with pleasant butter

form of the word is heated and dropped on mind

the shape it burns depends upon memory and imagination

a perfect mix of their solutions is totally inflammable

so all is revealed or we are branded

Rather a Few Mistakes than Fucking Boredom giant cameras whirring on the lens hood of each stands a rifleman his warning shot as the image approaches sounds in the past

today we are scraping every particle from the tin cocoa-tin telephones smell of steam trains unable to act his deformity sounds every where empty affects all thinking whistling sounds as the familiar voice sells its pretension

(oh guide my hand to make these tracks i do not understand

soft needle mind now fills all grooves to amplify time's wind)

Art is the Farthest Retreat from Boredom every thing is replacing the inside of being there

‘the true aristocrat of the equestrian world’ death is so obvious what does not exist is eternity any thing can do nothing but prove it because we are now

Preserved People are Rare we are not here for a test dance every one dance who's collecting the midgets? my reflexes are so slow curious is a direction why permutate the bits to find now? you are all bits other wise

the end

Ground Swell

out in the fresh air captain phillips hadn't told her she gave him two helpings of larks

Drop in Existence

i am lonely for my replaced cells 1945, 1952, 1959, 1966, 1973, 1980, 1987 learn your language no direction is home

silver moon in a red world

running all day rattling through dry forest pleasant butter is silver and gold

never used up my energy burned out the connections i've got to know

~~Thor Heyerdahl Solved the Mystery of the Statues? That Wasn't the Mystery~~ true sight of the enemy is not you

noble journeys into the unmapped

i mean the boredom of a kon-tiki

against leif ericsson courage and knowledge

are not enough pleasant butter again stunting their own growth... making themselves ornamental japanese trees, safe, instead of being the trees struck by lightning

'extra yields

as if what they handle life was the invader, perhaps, and all things that live were members of the crew (animals went two by two, yin and yang) who survived through a warp into no-space between

i sense the end
down a tube a spurt now and then eighteenth to eighteenth a choice of the net's size and gauge the ship is changing course i have played out the games and the old faces bore me season to season

names flashing i'll hammer it

so damn thin i can see out

our enquiry points a way off the wheel

eleven segments are left to trust and imagination

lose your self

becomes your art

then what is left

lives

no matter how you muddy it it clears and there you are again

do you see me? i am leaving a space where i was is as bad

i shall forge the blade of my own substance and it may not be a blade

i have tasted fire goodbye, pleasant butter

Intellectual Compost 6 clusters from a level best company remain under accuracy for minutes of last revenue detach and screw you good people in box pieces absorb basic lies gingerly rattle tall cottons hung still on the front page snickering worked great pictures sapped traction for spectators face up arms pointed out broke apart stunted emotions nothing could deprive conversion of fire shared to appreciate despair nothing reflective but movie love touched costume almost evaporated

Consolidation

so large attending to increase clambered desperately into some air would surely frighten weekend excursions you could pay players an introverted interest ask them to rip frequency examined every one real becomes the forum on sight spasmodic leaps in a foreign room look hideous awash with opinions followed by dissociation shown protruding discovered money business transmuted through the subject metal guaranteeing more dramatic things phrase donkey work settled back open the last door inside close to wind and modern air build up a local anaesthetic begging not to be beaten themselves in their consumption but for the notary's mind drift through rains southward across officialdom we know the alligators who circulate around thinking to assess the human angle oldest surviving peeling walls exorbitant doubts almost organised show people supporting scaffolding fastidious views too demonstrate the perception of statement
